The Project

Duration:
15.11.2012 – 14.10.2015 (3 years)

Objectives:
A multi-country project to modernize curricula in sustainable tourism management (SuToMa) and develop a joint understanding about the principles of sustainability.

Reason:
Tourism development is a regional priority for the Caucasus. Especially for Europeans it is a fascinating area with a rich cultural history and biodiversity. Well educated human resources are needed for sustainable regional development.

Our perspective:
Only a sustainable regional development within the tourism sector guarantees a long-term economic, social and ecological welfare for people and following generations.

Partners:
30 universities, enterprises and NGOs in Azerbaijan, Armenia and Georgia. European partners in Ireland and Latvia, 2 representatives from CIM/GIZ.

Targets:
Development of 12 new modules for innovative topics which will be integrated into already existing curricula.

Outcomes:
- A common understanding of sustainability and regional development
- Creating modules according to the Bologna standards
- Comparable qualification standards
- New methods and materials for teacher training
- Formal integration of practical placements in the curricula
- Implementation of an eLearning platform
- Establishing new international academic cooperation
